

Highlights Bulgarian healthcare system

8.5% of total GDP

among the highest in East Europe or former Socialist states, but still lower than most European countries

$2,217/capita (avg. +7.43% for 17 years)

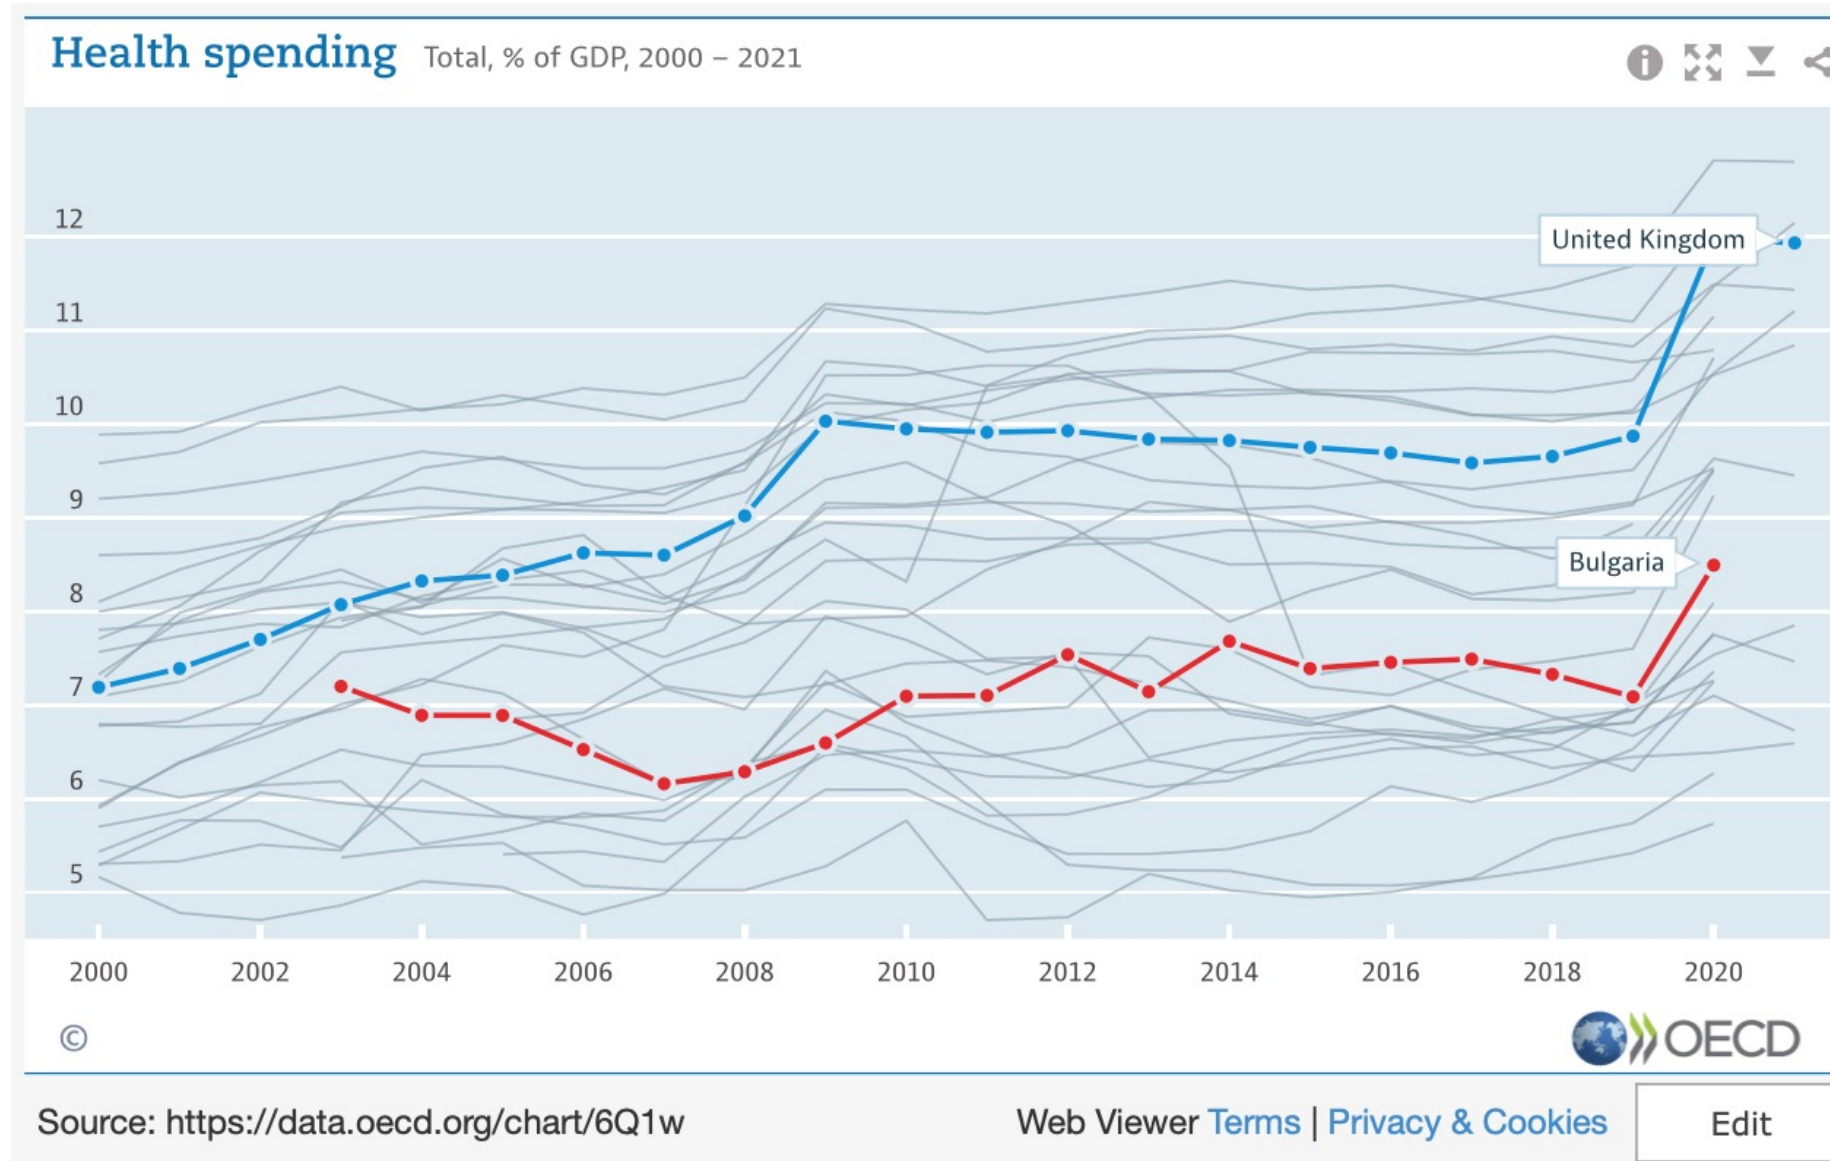

one of the lowest in Europe, but with a steady increase over the past two decades

37.5% of the expenditure are out-of-pocket or voluntary, the highest in Europe, where the average level is 21%

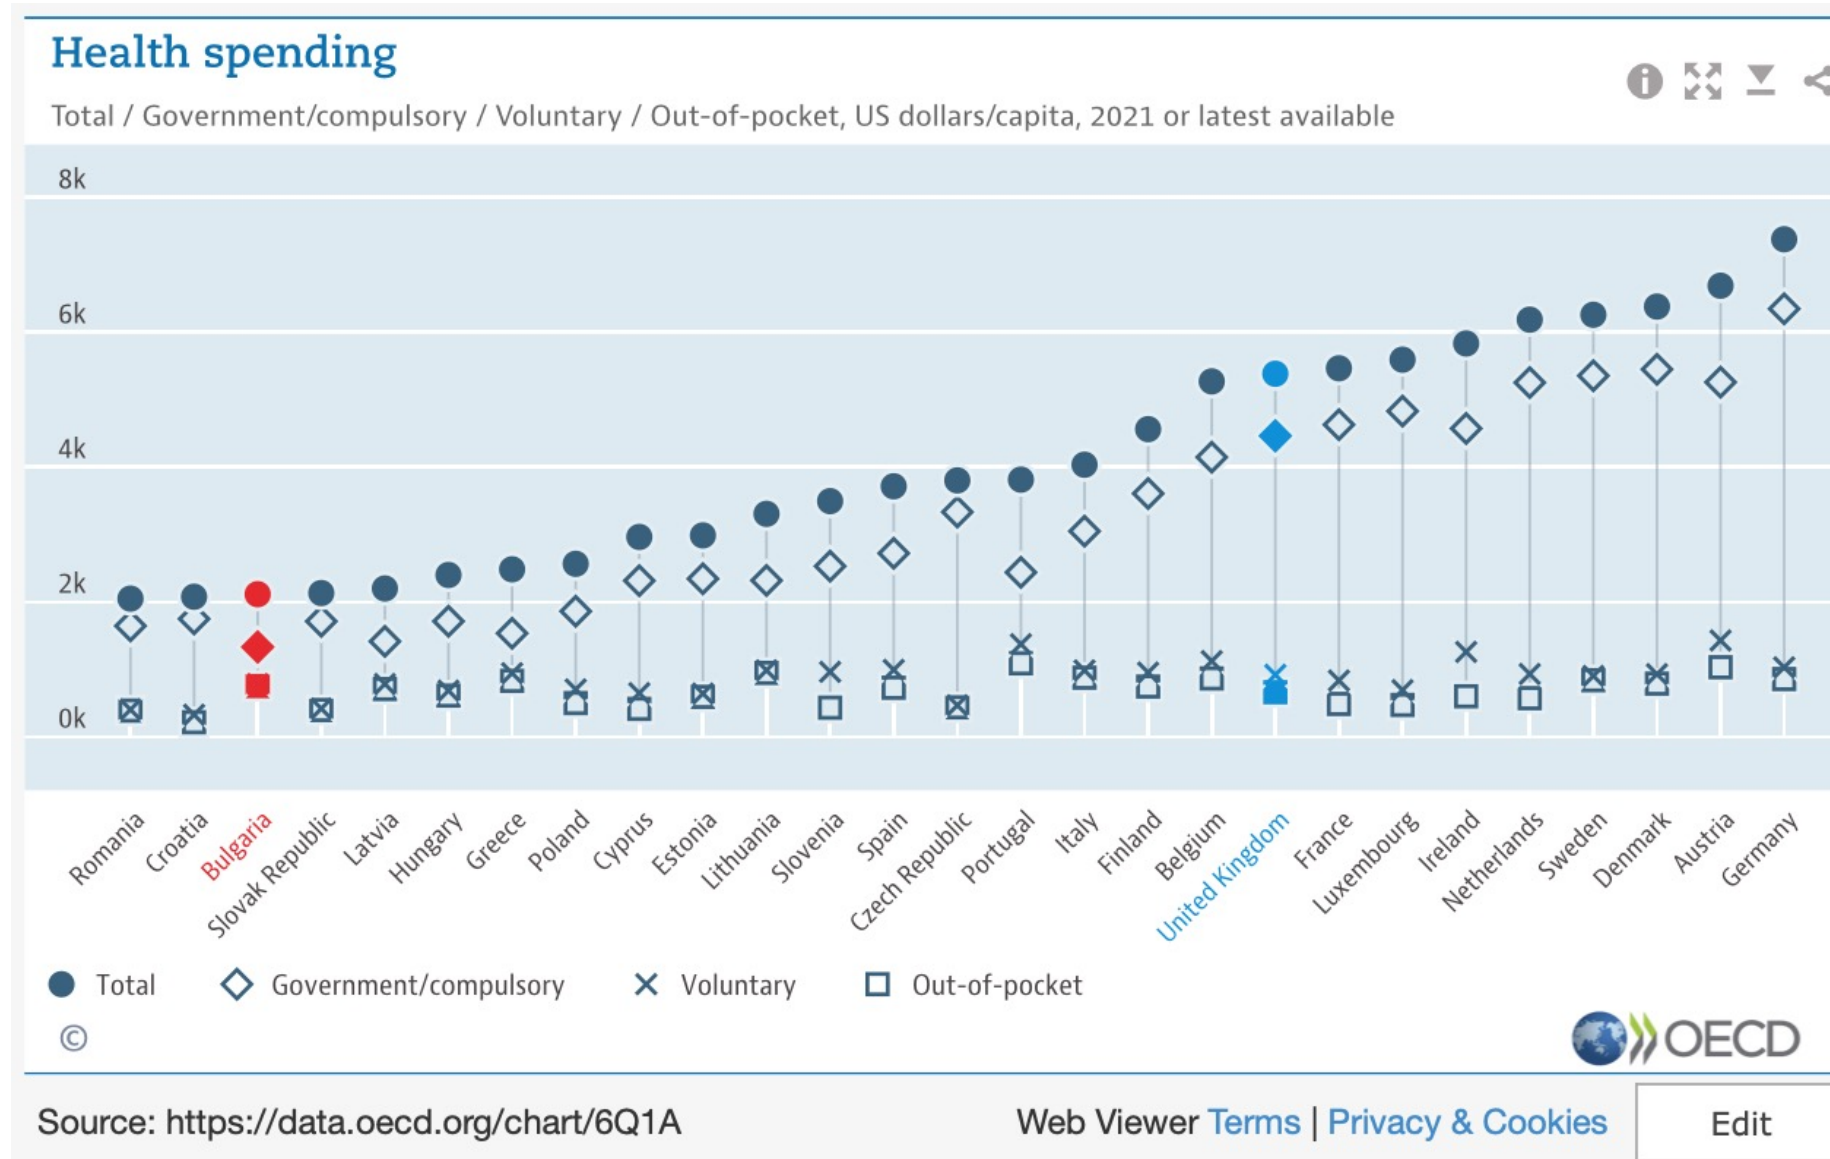

Overview proportion of GDP

Overview health spending per capital

Overview funding structure

Overview operation details

15% of the population uninsured (WHO, 2022)

Planner

National Health Insurance Fund (NHIF)

- Collect insurance contributions to National Revenue Agency (NRA)
- Negotiate with healthcare providers for a National Framework Contract

Operator

Regional Health Insurance Fund (RHIF)

- Design and implement local health policies
- Form contracts with local health practitioners

Register

Municipal offices

- Register and validate local health practices
- Prepare reports for local health care providers

Health insurance pooling from the healthy to the sick from the rich to the poor from the young to the elderly